The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is the appropriate Federal banking agency for Cross River Bank, Teaneck, New Jersey (Bank), under section 3(q) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (Act), 12 U.S.C. § 1813(q).

The FDIC considered the matter and determined, and the Bank neither admits or denies, that it engaged in the unsafe or unsound banking practices related to its compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations by failing to establish and maintain internal controls, information systems, and prudent credit underwriting practices in conformance with the Safety and Soundness Standards contained in Appendix A of 12 C.F.R. Part 364, or the violations of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1691, et seq., as implemented by Regulation B, 12 C.F.R. Part 1002, and the Truth-in-Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1601, et seq., as implemented by Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. Part 1026, as described in the May 3, 2021 Consumer Compliance Report of Examination (2021 ROE).

The Bank, by and through its duly elected and acting Board of Directors (Board), has executed a STIPULATION AND CONSENT TO THE ISSUANCE OF A CONSENT ORDER (CONSENT AGREEMENT), dated March 8, 2023, that is accepted by the FDIC. With the CONSENT AGREEMENT, the Bank, without admitting or denying any charges of unsafe or unsound banking practices or violations of law or regulation, has consented to the issuance of this CONSENT ORDER (ORDER) under section 8(b) of the Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b), by the FDIC.

Having determined that the requirements for issuance of an order under section 8(b) of the Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b), have been satisfied, the FDIC hereby issues the following ORDER:

CONSENT ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Bank, its institution-affiliated parties (IAPs), as that term is defined in section 3(u) of the Act, 12 U.S.C. § 1813(u), and its successors and assigns, take the following action:

1. Board Requirements

- A. Supervision, Direction, and Oversight. The Board must immediately:
1. increase its supervision and direction of management, and its oversight and monitoring of the Bank's system of internal controls, information systems, credit underwriting practices, and internal audit systems related to consumer protection laws and regulations (referred to by the Bank as the Marketplace Lending Compliance Management System and in this ORDER as Marketplace Lending CMS);
 2. assume responsibility, consistent with the Bank's risk profile, size, considering its total assets and volume of credit transactions (for purposes of this ORDER, the terms "credit" and "credit transaction" have the meanings ascribed to them in Regulation B, 12 C.F.R. § 1002.2(j) and (m), hereinafter Credit and Credit Transaction, respectively), and operational complexity, considering the number of Credit products offered and number of third parties involved, for ensuring on a continuous basis that:

(a) prudent Credit underwriting practices appropriate to the nature and scope of the Bank's activities are established and maintained;

(b) the Bank's compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations is satisfactorily monitored;

(c) violations of applicable fair lending laws and regulations are prevented, or identified and self-corrected; and

(d) the Bank's internal audit system with respect to applicable fair lending laws and regulations:

(1) is appropriate to the size of the Bank and the nature and scope of its activities;

(2) appropriately considers the risk assessments, studies, reports, plans, policies, procedures, and/or processes required by this ORDER; and

(3) appropriately assesses the Bank's implementation of and adherence to any plans, policies, procedures, or processes adopted by the Board in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER.

B. Corrective Action. The Board must also ensure that the Bank takes all steps necessary, consistent with other provisions of this ORDER and safe and sound banking practices, to:

1. eliminate or correct, and prevent the unsafe or unsound banking practices identified and the violations of law or regulation cited in the 2021 ROE and establish policies, procedures, and/or processes to eliminate or correct, and prevent any unsafe or unsound banking practices identified and violations of law or regulation cited in future consumer compliance reports of examination, visitation reports or supervisory letters;

2. appropriately address the deficiencies and weaknesses identified in the 2021 ROE and establish processes to appropriately address any deficiencies or weaknesses identified in future consumer compliance reports of examination, visitation reports or supervisory letters; and

3. fully comply with the provisions of this ORDER in a timely manner.

2. New CRB Credit Products and New Third Parties

A. Identification of Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties. The Bank must, within 15 days from the effective date of this ORDER:

1. identify each product through which Credit is being offered by, through, or in conjunction with the Bank (CRB Credit Product); and

2. identify any entity other than the Bank offering a CRB Credit Product (Third Party) and the CRB Credit Product(s) it is offering.

B. Current CRB Credit Products and Third Party List. The Bank must, within 30 days from the effective date of the ORDER, prepare and submit a list of all CRB Credit Products with an appropriately detailed description of each such CRB Credit Product and the Third Party offering it (Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List) to the Regional Director of the FDIC's New York Regional Office (Regional Director) for review, and comment or non-objection as to the adequacy of the descriptions in accordance with Paragraph 7.

C. New CRB Credit Products and New Third Parties. For purposes of this ORDER:

1. any CRB Credit Product not included on the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List and any CRB Credit Product offered or to be offered by a Third Party not identified as offering the CRB Credit Product on the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List is a new CRB Credit Product (New CRB Credit Product); and

2. any Third Party not included on the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List submitted to the Regional Director is a new Third Party (New Third Party).

D. Non-Objection Required for All New Third Parties and New CRB Credit Products. The Bank will not (i) execute a binding commitment or agreement with a New Third Party; (ii) allow a New Third Party to offer a Credit product through, or in conjunction with the Bank; and/or (iii) offer a New CRB Credit Product, either directly or indirectly, without first receiving the Regional Director's written non-objection to do so. The Bank must submit a New Third Party or New CRB Credit Product non-objection request with, at a minimum, the documentation and analysis outlined below, to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7.

1. A New Third Party non-objection request must, at a minimum, include:

(a) a New Third-Party Risk Assessment, as defined below in paragraph 5.H.2, for the proposed New Third Party;

(b) an appropriately detailed description of the procedures, processes, and/or other actions that the Bank will take to ensure compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations and satisfactorily mitigate any risks identified in the New Third-Party Risk Assessment;

(c) an appropriately detailed description of the procedures and/or processes that will be established by the Bank for the on-going monitoring of the proposed New Third Party for compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations and for appropriately addressing and preventing any noncompliance with such laws or regulations;

(d) an appropriately detailed description of the procedures and processes that will be established by the Bank with respect to Information, as defined below in paragraph 3.A, related to the proposed New Third Party and the New CRB Credit Products it proposes to offer;

(e) the proposed written agreement with the proposed New Third Party; and

(f) the written assessment and recommendation submitted to the Board as to whether the proposed New Third Party meets the Bank's due diligence standards and the Bank should proceed with executing a binding commitment or agreement with the New Third Party for approval; and, the minutes of the meeting of the Board authorizing the submission of the proposed New Third Party to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7.

2. A New CRB Credit Product non-objection request must, at a minimum, include:

(a) a New CRB Credit Product Risk Assessment, as defined below in paragraph 5.I.2, for the proposed New CRB Credit Product;

(b) an appropriately detailed description of the procedures, processes, and/or other actions that the Bank will take to ensure compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations and satisfactorily mitigate any risks identified in the New CRB Credit Product Risk Assessment;

(c) an appropriately detailed description of the procedures and/or processes that will be established by the Bank for the on-going monitoring of the proposed New CRB Credit Product for compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations and for appropriately addressing and preventing any noncompliance with such laws or regulations;

(d) an appropriately detailed description of the procedures and processes that will be established by the Bank with respect to Information, as defined below in paragraph 3.A, related to the proposed New CRB Credit Product;

(e) any proposed amendments to the written agreement with the Third Party proposed to offer the New CRB Credit Product; and

(f) the written assessment and recommendation submitted to the Board as to whether the proposed New CRB Credit Product meets the Bank's due diligence standards and the Bank should proceed with offering the New CRB Credit Product for review and approval; and, the minutes of the meeting of the Board authorizing the submission of the proposed New CRB Credit Product to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7.

3. The Regional Director will provide written notification to the Bank of the date on which a New Third Party or New CRB Credit Product non-objection request is deemed to be substantially complete, but may request additional information or analysis any time. The Regional Director will act on a New Third Party or New CRB Credit Product non-objection request within 45 days of the date on which the request was deemed to be substantially complete, but the failure of the Regional Director to act within this timeframe does not constitute non-objection to a New Third Party or New CRB Credit Product non-objection request.

E. Updating Current CRB Credit Products and Third Party List: The Bank must, within 7 days of its receipt of a written non-objection from the Regional Director regarding a New Third Party or a New CRB Credit Product, update and resubmit the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection as to the adequacy of the descriptions in accordance with Paragraph 7.

3. Information Systems

A. Information Systems Review. Within 60 days from the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank must submit a proposed engagement letter or contract to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 to engage an independent third party acceptable to the Regional Director to: (i) assess whether the data, documents, records and/or any other information, in any medium or form, including textual, numerical, graphic, cartographic, narrative, or audiovisual (collectively, Information), related to each CRB Credit Product, every Third Party, and any models or systems, including any variables or weightings, used or relied on in connection with a CRB Credit Product (CRB Credit Model) is sufficiently complete, accurate, and accessible to enable the Bank to appropriately determine and monitor the compliance of such CRB Credit Products, Third Parties, and CRB Credit Models with all applicable fair lending laws and regulations; (ii) assess whether the networks, systems, devices, software, hardware and/or other information resource, tool, mechanism, or compensating control used by the Bank to collect, process, maintain, use, share, disseminate, or dispose of Information pertaining to a CRB Credit Product, Third Party, or a CRB Credit Model (Information Systems) satisfactorily enable the Bank to access, collect, and analyze the Information necessary to appropriately monitor, in a timely manner, each CRB Credit Product, every Third Party, and any CRB Credit Models and ensure each such CRB Credit Product is offered and every Third Party and CRB Credit Model operates in compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Information Systems Assessment); and (iii) prepare a written report reflecting the findings of the Information Systems Assessment (Information Systems Report) at its conclusion. The Information Systems Assessment must include a review and analysis of the Information Systems Report components required by Paragraph 3.B. below as of the date on which the Information Systems Assessment is commenced. The engagement letter or contract must, at a minimum:

1. describe the work to be performed under the engagement letter or contract;
2. provide for unrestricted access to workpapers and personnel of the third party by the FDIC; and
3. require that the Information Systems Assessment be completed and summarized in the Information Systems Report and delivered to the Bank within 90 days of the Regional Director's non-objection to the proposed engagement letter or contract, with a copy delivered simultaneously to the Bank's Directors' Compliance Oversight Committee (DOC), the continuance and maintenance of which is required by Paragraph 6 of this ORDER, the Bank's Internal Audit Department (IAD), and the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER.

B. Information Systems Report: The Information Systems Report must, at a minimum, include:

1. a detailed schedule of the CRB Credit Products, Third Parties, and CRB Credit Models assessed;
2. a review and assessment of whether the Bank's Information pertaining to each CRB Credit Product, Third Party, and CRB Credit Model assessed appropriately enables the Bank to determine whether such CRB Credit Products, Third Parties, and CRB Credit Models comply with applicable fair lending laws and regulations and to effectively monitor such compliance;
3. a detailed schedule and description of any issues or concerns with respect to the completeness, quality, accuracy, and accessibility of the Information identified during the assessment;
4. recommendations to address any Information issues and concerns identified;
5. a review and assessment of whether the Information Systems satisfactorily enable the Bank to access, collect, and analyze the Information necessary to appropriately monitor, in a timely manner, each CRB Credit Product, every Third Party, and any CRB Credit Models and ensure each such CRB Credit Product is offered and every Third Party and CRB Credit Model operates in compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations; and
6. recommendations to address any identified Information Systems issues and concerns.

C. Information Systems Plan: Within 45 days of receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection to the Information Systems Report, the Bank must develop a written plan of action (Information Systems Plan) appropriately addressing each recommendation contained in the Information Systems Report with a time frame for completing the recommended action; an alternative proposal to the recommended action with a satisfactory justification for such alternative and a time frame for completing it; or a satisfactory justification as to why the recommended action is not necessary or appropriate. The Information Systems Plan must be submitted to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER. In the event the Information Systems Plan, or any portion thereof, is not implemented or adhered to after its adoption by the Board, the DOC must promptly, but in no instance more than 7 days from such event, advise the Regional Director in writing of the specific reasons for deviating from the Information Systems Plan and the action it will take to address the deviation. The Regional Director may either provide written non-objection to any such deviation or require compliance with the Information Systems Plan.

4. Fair Lending Compliance Risk Management

A. Fair Lending Risk Assessment. Within 60 days from the Regional Director's non-objection to the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List, the Bank must: (i) conduct an initial risk assessment of all CRB Credit Products and all Third Parties on the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List to identify fair lending risks, including any risks associated with an application (for purposes of this ORDER, the term "application" has the meaning ascribed to it in Regulation B, 12 C.F.R. § 1002.2(f), hereinafter, Application) and/or Credit Transaction conducted by, through or in conjunction with the Bank (CRB Credit Transaction) for compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Fair Lending Risk Assessment), and (ii) submit the initial Fair Lending Risk Assessment, and any subsequent Fair Lending Risk Assessments prepared prior to the termination of this ORDER, to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER and to the IAD upon receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection. The Bank must ensure that its Marketplace Lending CMS includes written policies, procedures, and/or processes requiring comprehensive periodic risk-based Fair Lending Risk Assessments and their timing. These policies, procedures, and/or processes must appropriately take into account prior Fair Lending Risk Assessments, audit findings contained in audit reports prepared by or on behalf of the IAD or by or on behalf of a Third Party, and must incorporate the results of the Bank's annual underwriting and pricing analyses. The Bank must also ensure these policies, procedures, and/or processes require that: (i) risk ratings resulting from the Fair Lending Risk Assessments are accurate and well supported by qualitative and quantitative data; and (ii) Fair Lending Risk Assessments conducted after the termination of the ORDER are submitted to the DOC for review and provided to the IAD after receipt of the DOC's approval.

B. Fair Lending Resources Study and Report. Within 60 days from the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank must submit a proposed engagement letter or contract retaining an independent third party acceptable to the Regional Director to conduct a fair lending resources study (Fair Lending Resources Study) and to prepare a written summary of the Fair Lending Resources Study (Fair Lending Resources Report) at its conclusion to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7. The Fair Lending Resources Study must appropriately consider the Bank's size and growth plans; the current and anticipated number of CRB Credit Products and their respective volumes; the current and anticipated number of Third Parties; and the current and anticipated number of merchants offering one or more CRB Credit Products through or in conjunction with a Third Party (Third- Party Merchants); the volume of decisions made by the Bank or on behalf of the Bank by a Third Party in connection with an Application, including Credit underwriting practices, a CRB Credit Transaction and/or any decisions made in connection with marketing of a CRB Credit Product, including the terms and conditions described in the marketing of a CRB Credit Product (CRB Decisions); and the Bank's use of non-staff resources, including software, automated systems, and/or other technology (Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources), and must, at a minimum include a review and analysis of Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources, management, and other staffing necessary to ensure compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations for all CRB Credit Products offered, and CRB Credit Transactions, and appropriately address the fair lending weaknesses and deficiencies identified in the 2021 ROE. The Fair Lending Resources Study must also assess the adequacy and effectiveness of Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources to accomplish stated objectives related to their use and reliance by the Bank for compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations, and the abilities, experience, and other qualifications of management and other staff having duties and responsibilities related to the Bank's compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Fair Lending Personnel) to satisfactorily perform their present and anticipated fair lending-related duties and responsibilities, including those to ensure complete and timely compliance with the requirements of this ORDER. The Fair Lending Resources Study must also include a review and analysis of each Fair Lending Resources Report component required by Paragraph 4.B.2. below as of the date on which the Fair Lending Resources Study is commenced.

1. Engagement Letter. The engagement letter or contract must, at a minimum:

- (a) describe the work to be performed under the engagement letter or contract;
- (b) provide for unrestricted access to workpapers and personnel of the third party by the FDIC; and
- (c) require that the Fair Lending Resources Study be completed and summarized in the Fair Lending Resources Report and delivered to the Bank within 90 days of the Regional Director's non-objection to the proposed engagement letter or contract, with a copy delivered simultaneously to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7.

2. Fair Lending Resources Report. At a minimum, the Fair Lending Resources Report must:

- (a) identify any Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources and/or any enhancements to existing Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources necessary for complete and timely compliance with this ORDER, applicable fair lending laws and regulations, and the Fair Lending Internal Controls detailing any deficiencies in such resources and additional needs with appropriate consideration to any statutory or regulatory requirements; the size, complexity, and growth plans of the Bank; the current and anticipated number of CRB Credit Products and their respective volumes; current and anticipated number of Third Parties offering a CRB Credit Product by or in conjunction with the Bank; the current and anticipated number of Third-Party Merchants; and volume of CRB Decisions, and provide a clear and concise description of any Non-Staff Fair Lending Resource needs and/or enhancements recommended to existing Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources;

(b) identify the type and number of managers needed to supervise Fair Lending Personnel, including those necessary to ensure the Bank's complete and timely compliance with this ORDER, and the internal controls established to provide for compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Fair Lending Internal Controls), detailing any vacancies and additional needs with appropriate consideration to any statutory or regulatory requirements; the size, complexity, and growth plans of the Bank; the current and anticipated number of CRB Credit Products and their respective volumes; current and anticipated number of Third Parties; the current and anticipated number of Third-Party Merchants; the volume of CRB Decisions, and the Bank's use of Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources;

(c) identify the type and number of Fair Lending Personnel positions needed for complete and timely compliance with this ORDER, applicable fair lending laws and regulations, and the Fair Lending Internal Controls noting the duties and responsibilities attributable to each position, providing a clear and concise description of the relevant knowledge, skills, abilities, and experience necessary for each position, including delegations of authority, reporting lines, and performance objectives, and detailing any vacancies and additional needs with appropriate consideration to any statutory or regulatory requirements; the size, complexity, and growth plans of the Bank, the current and anticipated number of CRB Credit Products and their respective volumes, current and anticipated number of Third Parties offering a CRB Credit Product by or in conjunction with the Bank and the current and anticipated number of Third-Party Merchants, the volume of CRB Decisions, and the Bank's use of Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources; and

(d) recommend actions to be taken to retain and/or recruit qualified Fair Lending Personnel.

3. Fair Lending Resources Plan. Within 45 days of receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection to the Fair Lending Resources Report, the Bank must develop a written plan of action (Fair Lending Resources Plan) addressing each recommendation contained in the Fair Lending Resources Report with a time frame for completing the recommended action; an alternative proposal to the recommended action with a satisfactory justification for such alternative and a time frame for completing it; or a satisfactory justification as to why the recommended action is not necessary or appropriate. The Fair Lending Resources Plan and any subsequent modification thereto must be submitted to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7. In the event the Fair Lending Resources Plan, or any portion thereof, is not implemented or adhered to after its adoption by the Board, the DOC must promptly, but in no instance more than 7 days from such event, advise the Regional Director in writing of the specific reasons for deviating from the Fair Lending Resources Plan and the action it will take to address the deviation. The Regional Director may either provide written non-objection to any such deviation or require compliance with the Fair Lending Resources Plan. The Fair Lending Resources Plan must, at a minimum:

(a) contain a proposed organizational chart identifying proposed fair lending staff and manager positions delineating lines of authority and reporting (Proposed Fair Lending Org Chart);

(b) summarize the duties and responsibilities, by position, of all Fair Lending Personnel;

(c) contain clear and concise descriptions of the relevant knowledge, skills, abilities and experience necessary for each position on the Proposed Fair Lending Org Chart;

(d) establish requirements and processes to periodically evaluate each individual's job performance;

(e) establish processes to promote successful filling of positions identified by the Proposed Fair Lending Org Chart and their retention;

(f) include a list and description of all Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources;

(g) establish requirements and processes to periodically evaluate all Non-Staff Fair Lending Resources and replace, upgrade and/or enhance as appropriate; and

(h) establish procedures to periodically review and update the Fair Lending Resources Plan.

C. Fair Lending Internal Controls. Within 45 days of receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection to the Information Systems Plan, the Fair Lending Resources Plan, and the Fair lending Compliance Plan, the Bank must, to the extent not already developed, develop and submit the Bank's Fair Lending Internal Controls to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER. The Fair Lending Internal Controls must be reviewed periodically on a risk basis, but not less than annually, and adjusted as appropriate. The Fair Lending Internal Controls must, at a minimum, include:

1. Fair Lending Policies, Procedures, and/or Processes. The Fair Lending Internal Controls must include policies, procedures, and/or processes (Fair Lending Policies and Procedures) designed to appropriately address and mitigate any risks identified in the Fair Lending Risk Assessment; require appropriate oversight and monitoring of all CRB Decisions to ensure compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations; and identify statistically significant disparities involving a prohibited basis (for purposes of this ORDER, the term “prohibited basis” has the meaning ascribed to it in Regulation B, 12 C.F.R. § 1002.2(z)) under applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Disparities). The Fair Lending Policies and Procedures must appropriately take into account and be consistent with the Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures, as defined in Paragraph 5 of this ORDER, and all other requirements of this ORDER. The Fair Lending Policies and Procedures must include processes to: (i) determine whether detected Disparities appear to be the result of one or more acts or practices that do not comply with applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Discriminatory Practice); (ii) determine the appropriate corrective measures and/or remedial action, including, e.g., restitution or Credit offers (Remedial Action) to address the apparent Discriminatory Practice and/or mitigation steps necessary to prevent reoccurrences of such apparent Discriminatory Practice; (iii) implement the appropriate corrective action and/or Remedial Action to address the apparent Discriminatory Practice; and (iv) establish appropriate mitigation steps to prevent reoccurrences of any apparent Discriminatory Practices;

2. Fair Lending Training. The Fair Lending Internal Controls must provide for appropriate fair lending training (Fair Lending Training) of all members of the Board; all compliance personnel, including Fair Lending Personnel; and any managers, IAD personnel, and other personnel with roles and responsibilities related to or involving CRB Credit Products (Trainee or Trainees). The Fair Lending Internal Controls related to Fair Lending Training must, at a minimum, include:

(a) policies, procedures, and/or processes to provide training designed to be commensurate with the Trainee’s respective duties and responsibilities with respect to the CRB Credit Products on the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List, including Applications, CRB Decisions, and CRB Credit Transactions; and any Third Parties on the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List (Current Third Parties) and their Third-Party Merchants, including any due diligence, oversight, and monitoring of the Current Third Parties, to enable the Trainee to satisfactorily fulfill their role(s) and responsibilities with respect to applicable fair lending laws and regulations;

(b) policies, procedures, and/or processes to provide training designed to be commensurate with the Trainee's respective duties and responsibilities with respect to compliance with this ORDER and any risk assessments, studies, reports, plans, policies, procedures, and processes required by this ORDER;

(c) policies, procedures, and/or processes to update and promptly provide Fair Lending Training to appropriate Trainees to address: (i) any New CRB Credit Products; (ii) any new or revised policy, procedure, process, plan or program related to Fair Lending; and/or (iii) the results of the training assessments required below;

(d) policies, procedures, and/or processes to require initial and periodic assessments of training effectiveness (training assessments); and

(e) policies, procedures, and/or processes to satisfactorily document training activities and training assessments.

3. Fair Lending Monitoring. The Fair Lending Internal Controls must provide for the satisfactory monitoring of CRB Decisions, CRB Credit Products, and Third Parties for compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations; and identify, analyze, and determine whether any Disparities resulted in an apparent Discriminatory Practice (Fair Lending Monitoring). The Fair Lending Internal Controls related to Fair Lending Monitoring must, at minimum:

(a) include policies, procedures, and/or processes designed to:

(1) appropriately monitor identified risks, including the risks identified in Fair Lending Risk Assessments, audit reports, whether issued by the IAD or an auditor associated with a Third Party, Fair Lending Compliance Reports, as defined in Paragraph 4.C.4. of this ORDER, reports prepared by or on behalf of a Third Party pertaining in any way to the Third Party's compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations, and any other analyses and reviews related to compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations;

(2) establish statistical analysis and/or transaction testing requirements that appropriately consider actual underwriting and pricing factors used in connection with all CRB Decisions, CRB Credit Products and Third Parties; and

(3) identify Disparities and then investigate, analyze, and determine whether any such Disparities resulted in an apparent Discriminatory Practice;

(b) include policies, procedures, and/or processes to appropriately correct and prevent reoccurrences of any apparent Discriminatory Practices identified in a Semi-Annual Fair Lending Monitoring Report required by Paragraph 4.C.3.(d) below or otherwise coming to the attention of the Bank;

(c) include policies, procedures, and/or processes to appropriately assess whether Remedial Action to those affected by an apparent Discriminatory Practice identified in a Semi-Annual Fair Lending Monitoring Report or otherwise coming to the attention of the Bank is warranted; to determine the appropriate Remedial Action to be taken, and when and how such Remedial Action should be taken; and to monitor the completion of any such Remedial Action;

(d) require the issuance of semi-annual written reports analyzing the fair lending monitoring data and results, including: (i) a detailed description of any identified

Disparity and the status of the Bank's investigation and analysis of such Disparity to determine whether it resulted in an apparent Discriminatory Practice; (ii) a detailed description of any apparent Discriminatory Practice identified; (iii) a detailed description of the actions taken by the Bank to correct and prevent reoccurrences of any apparent Discriminatory Practices identified; and (iv) a detailed summary regarding any Remedial Action taken or to be taken to address any apparent Discriminatory Practice identified and if no Remedial Action has been or will be taken, a detailed explanation of why Remedial Action is not necessary (Semi-Annual Fair Lending Monitoring Report). Until the ORDER is terminated, Semi-Annual Fair Lending Monitoring Reports must be submitted to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER immediately after completion, and must be provided to the DOC and IAD after receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection. Subsequent to the termination of the ORDER, Semi-Annual Fair Lending Monitoring Reports must be submitted to the DOC for review immediately after completion, and must be provided to the IAD after receipt of the DOC's approval.

4. Fair Lending Compliance Assessment. Within 60 days from the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank must submit a proposed engagement letter or contract to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 to engage an independent third party acceptable to the Regional Director to: (i) assess whether, during the timeframe starting January 1, 2021, through December 31, 2022, each Third Party offering one or more CRB Credit Products for a period of six months or more during such time frame offered these CRB Credit Products in compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Fair Lending Compliance Assessment); and (ii) prepare a written report reflecting the findings of the Fair Lending Compliance Assessment (Fair Lending Compliance Report).

The Fair Lending Compliance Assessment must, at a minimum, include a review and analysis of the Fair Lending Compliance Report components required by Paragraph 4.C.4.(b) below.

(a) Engagement Letter. The engagement letter or contract must, at a minimum:

(1) describe the work to be performed under the engagement letter or contract;

(2) provide for unrestricted access to workpapers and personnel of the third party by the FDIC; and

(3) require that the Fair Lending Compliance Assessment be completed and summarized in a Fair Lending Compliance Report and delivered to the Bank within 90 days of the Regional Director's non-objection to the proposed engagement letter or contract, with a copy delivered simultaneously to the DOC, the IAD, and the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER.

(b) Fair Lending Compliance Report. The Fair Lending Compliance Report must, at a minimum, include:

(1) a detailed description of each CRB Credit Product(s) offered by each Third Party assessed;

(2) a review and assessment of each Third Party's policies and procedures related to each CRB Credit Product offered as to whether the policies and procedures ensure compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations with any recommended changes or enhancements;

(3) a detailed description of any CRB Decisions that do not appear to have been made in compliance with the Third Party's policies or procedures and/or applicable fair lending laws and regulations indicating whether the CRB Decision involved a Disparity;

(4) an analysis of whether any of the CRB Decisions involving a Disparity resulted in an apparent Discriminatory Practice;

(5) recommendations for the appropriate actions, including any corrective and preventive actions, where a Third Party is not in compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations;

(6) recommendations as to whether Remedial Action to those affected by an apparent Discriminatory Practice or violation of applicable fair lending laws or regulations is warranted; the appropriate type and amount of any such Remedial Action; when and how the Remedial Action should be taken; and how the Remedial Action should be monitored and tracked.

(c) Fair Lending Compliance Plan. Within 45 days of receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection to the Fair Lending Compliance Report, the Bank must develop a written plan of action (Fair Lending Compliance Plan) appropriately addressing each recommendation contained in the Fair Lending Compliance Report with a time frame for completing the recommended action; an alternative proposal to the recommended action with a satisfactory justification for such alternative and a time frame for completing it; or a satisfactory justification as to why the recommended action is not necessary or appropriate. The Fair Lending Compliance Plan must be submitted to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER. In the event a Fair Lending Compliance Plan, or any portion thereof, is not implemented or adhered to after adoption by the Board, the DOC must promptly, but in no instance more than 7 days from such event, advise the Regional Director in writing of the specific reasons for deviating from the Fair Lending Compliance Plan and the action it will take to address the deviation. The Regional Director may either provide a written non-objection to any such deviation or require compliance with the Fair Lending Compliance Plan.

(d) Fair Lending Compliance Assessments by CRB. The Bank must, to the extent not already developed, develop policies, procedures, and/or processes to conduct periodic, but not less than annual, assessments of whether each Third Party offering one or more CRB Credit Products for a period of six months or more during the calendar year preceding such assessment offered these CRB Credit Products in compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations. These policies, procedures, and/or processes must be submitted to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER within 90 days from receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection to the Fair Lending Compliance Report.

5. Third-Party Compliance Internal Controls

Within 45 days of receipt of the Regional Director's non-objection to the Information Systems Plan, the Fair Lending Resources Plan, and the Fair Lending Compliance Plan, the Bank must, to the extent not already developed, develop and submit the Bank's Third-Party compliance internal controls (Third-Party Compliance Internal Controls) related to applicable fair lending laws and regulations to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER. The Bank's Third-Party Compliance Internal Controls must include policies, procedures, and/or processes designed to ensure compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations (Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures). The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must, at a minimum:

A. Consistent with Other Provisions. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must appropriately take all available Fair Lending Risk Assessments, Semi-Annual Fair Lending Monitoring Reports, Fair Lending Compliance Reports, and Fair Lending Compliance Plans into account and be consistent with the Fair Lending Policies and Procedures, and all other requirements of this ORDER;

B. Corrective Action. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must require that any deficiencies, weaknesses and/or instances of noncompliance with applicable fair lending laws or regulations involving or related to a Third Party identified in the 2021 ROE and/or any subsequent consumer compliance report of examination, visitation report, or supervisory letter, Fair Lending Risk Assessment, Third-Party Compliance Risk Report and/or Third-Party Compliance Risk Management Plan are appropriately addressed and/or corrected;

C. CRB Decision Records. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must require that all Information related to a CRB Decision or CRB Credit Model (collectively, CRB Decision Records) be collected by the Bank or a Third Party and readily accessible by the Bank; satisfactorily sampled to ensure the information necessary to perform fair lending monitoring, audits, and system validations is included, accurate, and complete; and the CRB Decision Records are retained in compliance with all applicable regulations and are fully accessible to Bank personnel and Federal and State regulatory agencies;

D. Oversight and Monitoring. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must require appropriate oversight and monitoring of all CRB Decisions made by a Third Party, and establish standards and processes for such oversight and monitoring, appropriately taking into account the complexity, risk profile, and transaction volume of such Third Party's operations, including the CRB Credit Products offered by the Third Party, the adequacy of the Third Party's compliance program, the number of Third-Party Merchants, transaction volume of the Third-Party Merchants, and the Third Party's oversight of Third-Party Merchants;

E. Third Party/Third-Party Merchant Corrective and Preventive Action. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must require appropriate corrective and preventive action when noncompliance with applicable fair lending laws or regulations by either a Third Party or a Third-Party Merchant is identified and require the establishment of appropriate mitigation steps to prevent reoccurrences of any such noncompliance;

F. Third Party/Third-Party Merchant Remedial Action. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must require appropriate Remedial Action when apparent Discriminatory Practices by either a Third Party or a Third-Party Merchant are identified;

G. Third Party/Third-Party Merchant Marketing Materials. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must establish appropriate oversight and on-going monitoring and validation of all marketing materials, including the availability of terms and conditions offered in connection with a CRB Credit Product, distributed by a Third Party and/or a Third-Party Merchant; and

H. New Third Party Due Diligence. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must establish appropriate due diligence policies and procedures for any proposed

New Third Party that:

1. set standards for and require the collection of sufficient information about the New Third Party to appropriately assess risks associated with the New Third Party; such standards must, at a minimum, include the New Third Party's name and address, the New CRB Credit Products it proposes to offer, and any categories of merchants that will offer one or more of these proposed New CRB Credit Products through or in conjunction with the New Third Party and the Bank (New Third-Party Merchants);

2. require an initial thorough and well-documented review and assessment of risks associated with the New Third Party (New Third-Party Risk Assessment), including the internal controls established by the New Third Party to ensure compliance with applicable consumer protection laws and regulations, including any related information systems and internal audit procedures, Credit policies and procedures, any models or systems, including any variables or weightings, used or relied on in connection with a proposed New CRB Credit Product, Application forms, marketing materials, and oversight and monitoring procedures related to any New Third-Party Merchants (collectively, New Third-Party Internal Controls) and then periodic, but not less than annual, risk assessments of the New Third-Party Internal Controls;

3. require a written assessment and recommendation of the actions necessary to satisfactorily mitigate any risks identified in a New Third-Party Risk Assessment and ensure compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations for all proposed New CRB Credit Products;

4. require written recommendations for the establishment of processes for the on-going monitoring of New Third Parties and New Third-Party Internal Controls, including the monitoring of Third-Party Merchants, for compliance with applicable fair lending laws and regulations and for appropriately addressing and preventing any noncompliance with such laws or regulations;

5. require a comprehensive written agreement with a New Third Party clearly documenting and defining the specific duties and responsibilities of each party in connection with the offering of all proposed New CRB Credit Products. Such agreements must, at a minimum:

(a) ensure full and timely access by Bank employees and the appropriate federal and state regulatory agencies to all information necessary to perform fair lending monitoring, audits, and validations of the New Third-Party Internal Controls;

(b) require initial and then periodic training for all New Third Party personnel assigned any duties or responsibilities related to the New Third-Party Internal Controls commensurate with their assigned duties and responsibilities with training assessments to appropriately assess the effectiveness of their training and satisfactory documentation of all training activities and training assessments. Such training must be promptly updated and provided to appropriately address any New CRB Credit Products added to the Current CRB Credit Products and Third Parties List, any changes in the New Third-Party Internal Controls, and the results of the required training assessments;

(c) require the New Third Party to collect and maintain information and documentation necessary for the appropriate oversight and monitoring of its Third-Party Merchants offering CRB Credit Products, including related Application forms, Credit terms and conditions, and marketing materials for compliance with applicable consumer protection laws and regulations;

6. require all due diligence processes be satisfactorily completed; and

7. require a written assessment and recommendation as to whether the proposed New Third Party meets the due diligence standards and the Bank should proceed with executing a binding commitment or agreement with the New Third Party be submitted to the Board for approval and that no binding commitment or agreement with a New Third Party be executed by the Bank unless and until the approval of the Board has been provided.

I. New CRB Credit Product Due Diligence. The Third-Party Compliance Policies and Procedures must establish appropriate due diligence policies and procedures for any proposed New CRB Credit Product that:

1. require the collection of detailed information about the New CRB Credit Product and any Third Parties and the categories of Third-Party Merchants that plan to offer the New CRB Credit Product through or in conjunction with these Third Parties;

2. require an initial thorough and well-documented review and assessment of risks associated with the New CRB Credit Product (New CRB Credit Product Risk Assessment), including any modifications of internal controls established by Third Parties identified on the Current CRB Credit Product and Third Parties List and then periodic, but not less than annually, risk assessments of these internal controls;

3. require a written assessment and recommendation of the actions that would be required of a Third Party to satisfactorily mitigate any risks identified in a New CRB

Credit Product Risk Assessment and ensure compliance with applicable consumer protection laws and regulations when offered through or in conjunction with the Bank;

4. require written recommendations for the establishment of processes for the on-going monitoring of the Third Party proposing to offer the New CRB Credit Product for compliance with applicable consumer protection laws and regulations and for appropriately addressing and preventing any noncompliance with such laws or regulations;

5. require all due diligence processes be satisfactorily completed; and

6. require a written assessment and recommendation as to whether the proposed New CRB Credit Product meets the due diligence standards and the Bank should proceed with adding the New CRB Credit Product be submitted to the Board for approval and that no New CRB Credit Product be offered unless and until the written approval of the Board has been provided.

6. Directors' Compliance Oversight Committee

A. DOC Maintenance. The Board must continue and maintain its DOC and ensure that it is comprised of at least three independent directors (directors who are independent of management and are not, and within the preceding fiscal year have not been, an officer or employee of the institution or any affiliate of the institution) acceptable to the Regional Director. Nothing herein diminishes the responsibility of the entire Board to ensure compliance with the provisions of this ORDER in a timely manner.

B. DOC Plan. Within 45 days of the effective date of this ORDER, the DOC must submit a written plan detailing how the Board will ensure the requirements of this ORDER are met in a timely manner (DOC Plan) to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this ORDER. The DOC Plan must, at a minimum: (i) note the action to be taken to meet the requirements of this ORDER; (ii) establish the date by which such actions will be taken; and (iii) establish the means by which the DOC will monitor the status of these corrective actions and ensure timely compliance with this ORDER.

C. DOC Report. The DOC must submit a written report (DOC Report) detailing the status of all actions required in connection with this ORDER to the Board for consideration at each regularly scheduled meeting occurring after the effective date of this ORDER. The DOC Report and any discussion related to it or this ORDER must be included in the minutes of the corresponding Board meeting. The DOC Report must be submitted to the Regional Director as part of the progress reports required by Paragraph 8 of this ORDER, noting any action taken by the Board based on them.

7. Non-objection, Implementation and Adherence

A. Review, Comment or Non-objection: When a provision of this ORDER requires the Bank to submit new proposed plans, policies, or processes; proposed revisions or additions to an existing plan, policy, or process; or any other matter to the Regional Director for review, and comment or non-objection (Submission), the Bank will make the Submission to the Regional Director as a PDF document through the FDIC's Secure Email portal (securemail.fdic.gov) using e-mail address: NYMailRoomfdic.gov. The Regional Director may request in writing additional information or analysis in support of or in connection with any Submission from the Bank, and the Bank may request clarification of the Regional Director's request for additional information or analysis, but must provide such information or analysis or request additional time to provide the information or analysis with a reasonable justification of such request within the time frame set in the written request. Within 45 days of receipt of comments from the Regional Director, the Bank will make such modifications as may be necessary to respond to the Regional Director's comments and resubmit the Submission for review, additional comments or non-objection. If the Bank fails to make such modifications, or otherwise fails to address the comments of the Regional Director within such 45 day period, the Bank will provide a comprehensive written explanation of its failure to take action to the Regional Director.

B. Adoption, Implementation and Adherence: For Submissions receiving the written non-objection of the Regional Director, the Board will, at its next regularly scheduled meeting, adopt the plan, policy, or process as non-objected to by the Regional Director; incorporate the revision or addition to the plan, policy, or process as non-objected to by the Regional Director into the plan, policy, or process and adopt the plan, policy, or process with the pertinent revision or addition; or adopt any other matter for which it received non-objection. These actions must be appropriately reflected in the Board minutes. Thereafter, the Board must ensure that the Bank fully implements and adheres to the plan, policy, process, or other matter as adopted and enforce full and complete compliance with these plans, policies, processes, or other matters. In the event these plans, policies, processes, or other matters as adopted by the Board, or any portion thereof, are not fully implemented or adhered to, the Board must promptly, in no instance more than 7 days from the event, advise the Regional Director in writing of the specific reasons for the deviation or delay and the action it will take to address the deviation or delay. The Regional Director may either provide a written non-objection to any such deviation or delay or require compliance with the plan, policy, process, or other matter.

8. Progress Reports

Within 60 days from the end of each calendar quarter following the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank must furnish written progress reports detailing the form, manner, and results of any actions taken to secure compliance with this ORDER to the Regional Director. All progress reports must be reviewed and approved by the Board and be made a part of the Board minutes.

9. Shareholder Disclosure

Within 30 days from the effective date of this ORDER, the Board must provide its parent holding company, CRB Group, Inc., with either an accurate and complete description of all material aspects of the ORDER or a copy of the ORDER.

10. Miscellaneous

A. Other Actions. The provisions of this ORDER do not bar, estop, or otherwise prevent the FDIC or any other federal or state agency or department from taking any other action against the Bank or any of the Bank's current or former any IAPs, including any action under 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b)(6) or 12 U.S.C. § 1818(i), arising from, out of, or related to the facts and circumstances forming the basis of this ORDER; or in any way prevent the FDIC from conducting on-site reviews, visitations, and/or examinations of the Bank, its affiliates, agents, or Third-Parties at any time to monitor compliance with this ORDER.

B. Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this ORDER are binding on the Bank, its IAPs, and any successors and assigns thereof.
